Caesar salad

www.giallozafferano.com

Serving size: 4 | Prep time: 40 mins | Cook time: 5 mins

Ingredients

Romaine lettuce 14.1 oz
Parmigiano Reggiano PDO
cheese shaved 1.8 oz
Stale bread homemade 5 oz
Extra virgin olive oil to taste
Fine salt to taste
Black pepper to taste
Extra virgin olive oil 4 tbsp
Egg yolks 1
Lemon juice 2 tsp
Lemon peel 1
Dijon mustard 1 ½ tbsp
Anchovies in oil 3 fillets
Worcestershire sauce 1 tsp

Directions

1. To make the Caesar salad first prepare the lettuce: separate the leaves from the stalk 1 and roughly chop them 2 , then rinse them under running water and dry them with a salad spinner 3 . Store the dry lettuce in the refrigerator, this way it will be crunchier. If you don't have a salad spinner, wash the whole leaves and dry them on a clean towel, then chop them and store them in the refrigerator wrapped in a dry, possibly spongy towel, inside a container, so that the excess moisture is absorbed.
2. Move on to the croutons: cut the homemade bread 4 into irregular cubes 5 , then transfer them to a pan with a drizzle of oil 6 .
3. Salt 7 , pepper and toast the bread cubes over medium heat for about 5 minutes. Once golden 8 , set the croutons aside. Obtain the flakes from the Parmigiano Reggiano DPO with the help of a potato peeler 9 and also set these aside.

4. Focus on the dressing: in a bowl, put the anchovy fillets 10 , salt, pepper 11 , and the grated lemon zest 12 .

5. Add the mustard 13 and crush everything with a fork 14 . Add the yolk 14 and the lemon juice 15 , mixing well to incorporate them.

6. Now take a whisk and pour the oil in a thin stream while beating the mixture to emulsify it 16 . Finally add the Worcestershire sauce 17 and mix again to blend it 18 .

7. You're ready to assemble the salad: transfer the lettuce leaves to a large bowl 19 , then add the bread croutons 20 and the Parmigiano Reggiano DPO flakes 21 .

8. Pour the dressing 22 and mix well to evenly dress the salad 23 . Your Caesar salad is ready to be served 24 !

9. To make the Caesar salad with chicken prepare the lettuce, croutons, Parmigiano Reggiano DPO flakes, and the dressing in the same way, then take care of the meat: halve the whole chicken breast 25 and remove cartilage and bones, then season 26 and pepper the slices on both sides. Place the chicken breasts on a hot grill 27 .

10. Let cook for about 30-40 minutes over medium-low heat, turning the slices with the help of kitchen tongs 28 ; the cooking time depends on the thickness of the meat. Once ready 29 transfer the chicken breasts to a cutting board and slice them crosswise into not too thin slices 30 .

11. Assemble the salad by combining in a large bowl the lettuce, croutons 31 , Parmigiano Reggiano DPO flakes 32 , and the sliced chicken 33 .

12. Add the dressing 34 and mix well to blend everything together 35 . Your Caesar salad with chicken is ready to be served 36 !

4. whisking quickly to prevent lumps from forming 10 . Put the pan back over low heat and stir until it becomes golden; pour a little hot milk over the butter and flour mixture to dilute the bottom 11 , then add the rest, whisking all along. Add salt and nutmeg to taste. 12

5. Cook for 5-6 minutes over low heat until the sauce thickens 13 . Let it cool and prepare the crepes: thoroughly mix the milk 14 and eggs in a bowl. 15

6. Sift the flour directly into the bowl with the milk and eggs 16 , then whisk 17 to obtain a smooth, lump-free mixture 18 . Next, cover the bowl with plastic wrap and refrigerate for at least 30 minutes. This step is important to eliminate any lumps.

7. Butter a crepe pan (or a non-stick 8-inch (20 cm) pan) and heat it. When hot, pour a ladle of crepe batter 19 in the pan, enough to cover the bottom: help yourself with the crepe batter spreader or rotate the pan to distribute the batter evenly. After about 1 minute over medium-low heat, you will notice a slight browning 20 , the edges will tend to curl up and you can turn the first crepe using a spatula. Cook the crepe on the other side for about 1 minute. As you cook them, transfer the crepes onto a plate 21 and set them aside. This recipe will yield 8 crepes.

8. In the meantime, the sauce will have reached the right consistency, season with salt and pepper, add the peas 22 and continue cooking for another 5 minutes. Once the sauce 23 is ready, transfer it to a bowl and dilute it with a spoonful of béchamel sauce 24 .

9. Cut the scamorza cheese into cubes 25 and take a 14x9-inch (36x24 cm) rectangular baking dish. Spread a layer of béchamel sauce on the bottom 26 , sprinkle with breadcrumbs and make the cannelloni (filled pasta tubes): lay a crepe on a cutting board, fill the center with the sauce and a few cubes of scamorza cheese 27 .

10. Roll up the crepe 28 to create the cannellone (filled pasta tube) and place it in the pan 29 . Keep going this way until you have used up all the remaining crepes. Once you have filled the baking dish, spread a generous layer of béchamel sauce on top 30 ,

11. Flavor with thyme sprigs 31 and season with a sprinkling of grated Parmesan cheese 32 . Cook in a static oven preheated to 350°F (180°C) for about 10 minutes, then switch to grill mode at 460°F (240°C) for 5 minutes or the time needed to brown the surface. When cooked, let your crespelle (crepes) cannelloni pasta cool down slightly and serve 33 .

Fried Sicilian Cartocci

Serving size: 12 | Prep time: 45 mins | Cook time: 20 mins

Ingredients

Type 00 flour 4 cups
Whole milk 1 cup
Sugar 4 tbsp
Eggs medium 1
Fresh brewer's yeast 0.2 oz
Fine salt 0.9 tsp
Lard 1.8 oz
Sheep's milk ricotta cheese well drained 14.1 oz
Sugar 1 cup
Dark chocolate chips 2.8 oz
Sugar to taste
Peanut seed oil to taste

Directions

1. To prepare the fried Sicilian cartocci, start with the dough. In a bowl, pour the flour, sugar 1 , and crumbled fresh yeast 2 . Also pour in the milk 3 .
2. Mix with a fork 4 until the milk is absorbed, then add a pinch of salt 5 and knead again. Now add the whole egg 6 and knead again until it is absorbed 6 .
3. Now move to a countertop and work the dough with your hands 7 ; once it is smooth and homogeneous, add the lard little by little 8 , continuing to knead to absorb it 9 .
4. Continue in this way until the lard is used up; finally, fold the dough 10 and form a ball 11 . Transfer it to a bowl 12 , cover with plastic wrap and let it rise for 3 hours.

5. In the meantime, sift the ricotta 13 ; it must be well-drained and dry. Add the sugar 14 and mix. Cover with plastic wrap and let it rest for 4 hours in the refrigerator. Then add the chocolate chips 15 .

6. Mix again 16 and place back in the refrigerator. As soon as the dough has doubled in size 17 , transfer it back to the countertop and, using a dough scraper, cut off about 2.65 oz 18 .

7. Continue in this way until you obtain 12 equal pieces 19 . Take one and shape it by rolling it on the countertop 20 until you get a cylinder about 12 inches long 21 .

8. Take some cannoli molds and, starting from one end, wrap the dough 22 to form 4 turns 23 . You can also make 3 turns if you prefer less tapered cartocci. Place the cartocci on a baking sheet lined with parchment paper 24 .

9. Space the cartocci well, cover with plastic wrap 25 . Let rise for another hour. Pour the seed oil into a pot and heat it to 329°F. Dip the cartocci without burning yourself 27 .

10. Fry a few pieces at a time 28 . To brown them uniformly, use a spoon to pour hot oil over them. When they are well browned, drain them on kitchen paper 29 . Then remove the steel cylinder, being careful not to burn yourself 30 .

11. Roll it in sugar 31 and proceed the same way for the others. Transfer the ricotta into a piping bag and fill your cartocci 32 33 . Serve them immediately!

Genoese pesto (Pesto alla genovese)

www.giallozafferano.com

Serving size: 4 | Prep time: 30 mins

Ingredients

Basil 2.5 oz
Extra virgin olive oil $\frac{1}{3}$ cup
Parmigiano Reggiano PDO
cheese $\frac{1}{2}$ cup
Sardinian pecorino cheese $\frac{1}{4}$
cup
Pine nuts 1 oz
Garlic 2 cloves
Coarse salt $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp

Directions

1. To make Genoese pesto , first remove the basil leaves from the stems and place them in a colander 1 . Rinse quickly under cold running water 2 , then transfer them to a dish towel and dry them by blotting and rubbing gently 3 . Pay attention to the leaves' concave shape as water can pool in them; the leaves must be nice and dry.
2. Remove the germ from the garlic cloves and cut them in half 4 , then place in a marble mortar. Work the garlic with a wooden pestle until you get a cream 5 . At this point, add the pine nuts 6 and continue to grind.
3. Once a paste has formed 7 , add the basil leaves 8 and coarse salt 9 .

4. Always start with pounding movements, then moving on to circular movements 10 . Make sure you scrape around the inside of the mortar with a spoon to unstick the ingredients; that way, you'll get an even pesto. Once the consistency is creamy and even, add the pecorino 11 , in chunks, and grind in the same way to incorporate it, then add the Parmigiano Reggiano 12 , doing the same.

5. When all the ingredients have been reduced to a cream, pour in the oil 13 and circle the pestle around for a couple of more minutes 14 . Your genoesese pesto is ready to be used 15 !

2. Mix everything first with a spoon 4 and then with your hands; you don't need to knead too much, just ensure all the flour is incorporated. Break the dough into irregular pieces 5 , place them back in the bowl, and cover with plastic wrap 6 . Let it mature in the refrigerator for 24 hours.
3. After the maturation time, transfer the starter dough to the bowl of a stand mixer equipped with a dough hook 7 . Add the crumbled yeast 8 and the flour 9 .

4. Also pour in half of the water 10 and start the stand mixer. Add the remaining water slowly while the mixer runs until fully absorbed. At this point, add the salt 11 and the oil slowly 12 , keeping the mixer running.

5. When the dough is smooth and homogeneous 13 , move to the work surface, cover it with the bowl, and let it rest for 10 minutes 14 . After this time, give it 2 folds 15 .

6. Let the dough rest again, covered with the bowl, for 10 minutes 16 . Repeat this operation 2 more times, then transfer the dough to the bowl 17 , cover with plastic wrap and let it rise at room temperature for about an hour, or until doubled in size 18 . Meanwhile, place the baking stone on the top rack of the oven preheated to 482°F in static mode.

7. Once doubled in volume 19 , flip the dough onto the work surface and cut it with a dough scraper 20 to get 6 portions of about 10 oz each 21 .

8. Make small folds to form balls 22 23 and place them on an oiled tray 24 .

9. Oil the surface of the balls as well 25 , cover with plastic wrap, and let them rise at room temperature for 30 minutes 26 . Meanwhile, pour the canned tomatoes into a bowl and crush them with your hands 27 .

10. Season with oil 28 and salt 29 , add fragrance with basil leaves, and mix 30 .

11. After the rising time, stretch the dough balls on the semolina-dusted surface by pressing with your fingertips from the center and gently pulling the dough until you get a diameter of about 12-13 inches 31 . Spread the tomato sauce on the surface 32 and sprinkle with mozzarella 33 .

12. Add the artichokes 34 , olives 35 , and cooked ham 36 .

13. Finish with marinated mushrooms 37 , then transfer the pizza onto the peel 38 and slide it onto the baking stone. Bake for 6 minutes, then remove and garnish with basil. Your Capricious Pizza is ready to be enjoyed 39 !
